“ I am saddened to just learn now that my (step) great-grandma Frances has passed last year. I enjoyed visiting her and grandpa John as a child. She made me the most beautiful handmade porcelain doll in my likeness, with a emerald velvet dress with so much fine details. My favorite memories were when I was visiting we would go to a local tea cafe and have fancy tea lunches. I wish I had stayed in touch when I got older but I'm happy to see she lived a long and wonderful life! <3

“ Aunt Frances was beautiful, sweet and so very talented. She was my mother's older brother's wife and I loved her dearly. She was a professional seamstress, porcelain doll maker and made our oldest daughter's wedding dress from just a magazine picture! She was a dedicated follower of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. She had a goal of living to be 100 and she made it! Rest in peace Aunt Frances!
