

Leda Joyce Sapcut

April 30, 1929 - March 30, 2019

Leda Joyce Sapcut was born April 30, 1929, in Maud, Oklahoma, to Henry George and Florence Mae VanHorn Turner. She died Saturday, March 30, 2019, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, at the age of 89 years. Leda was raised in Prague, Oklahoma, with her parents and her brother, Calvin Turner. Her baby brother, Denver Lee Turner, passed away as an infant. She had many fond memories of growing up close to her Aunt Tootsie and her cousin Herman Ray. She told stories of growing up in the country, playing on top of barn roofs and riding their horse down through the woods. The family moved to Tulsa when Henry got a job with Meadow Gold. She attended Tulsa Central High School where she met her first husband, Don Gregory, Sr. She also made a lifelong friend in Juana Vandiver. Leda raised three children alone after her divorce from Don. She spent all of her time with her kids and served as Den mother at their Boy Scout outings. She was married April 3, 1969, in Tulsa to Leland Virgil Sapcut, and brought their two families together. Leda had her two sons and a daughter and Leland had his three sons. Together they had Lorraine and became the Brady Bunch plus one. She started out her early career working at Alexander and Alexander Insurance in downtown Tulsa. She later spent many years working in concession at the Tulsa County Fairgrounds. She had much fun with her co-workers, it was like one big happy family. She enjoyed seeing many friends that came out to the various concerts, tractor pulls, the Fair, or anything she might be working. Leda enjoyed a variety of pastimes including reading, fishing, and mostly family outings and spending time with her family. Leda was the best Grammy to her grandchildren and spent much time with them at their sporting events, going to the lake, and just babysitting. She was the first person to greet them after school and to hear all about their day. She was a loyal confidante and a great cook. She spoiled her grandbabies with pancakes, donuts, or anything else their hearts desires. Those she leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:

Her daughter and son-in-law; Lorraine and Steve Houck, of Owasso, Oklahoma
Grandchildren; Richard Sapcut and wife Rachel George Sapcut and husband Mike
Clay Gregory and wife Melissa
Camden Houck and wife Destiny

Brennen Houck, Raegan Houck, and Rylie Houck

Great grandchildren; Stephanie Carr, Cody Sapcut, Lauren Mitchell, Jaxon Browning
Ian Gregory, and Chrissy Fuller

Great, Great granddaughter; Ellen Carr

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Leland Sapcut, six children,
Karen Gregory, Donald Gregory, Jr., and Mark Gregory, stepsons, George Sapcut, Ronald Sapcut, and Reginald "Beebe" Sapcut, and two brothers, Calvin Turner, and Denver Lee Turner.

Comments

“ Leda was such a sweet lady she was my grandmothers good friend and I was blessed to have spent time in her home as a kid running with Lorraine. Then as a teenager working with her at the Tulsa County Fairgrounds. Life dealt Leda a tough row to hoe, but you would have never known. Her beautiful smile and warm laughter made anyone around feel better. She never became bitter, but showered all that were around her with love. I'm sure there was a beautiful reunion in Heaven when she was called home. Prayers for you Lorraine and her many grandchildren she left behind.
