“ Lisa..Linda..Leslie..and all of Faye's family we are sending heartfelt condolence.

Faye was kind to me and would get tickled over some things Lisa and I would do on the basketball court. One of the things was when we were younger Lisa could out jump about everyone. When she had a jump ball she would wink either her left or right eye on which way she was going to hit the ball. That way I had a head start to go get the ball. We thought we were being really sly but Faye caught on real fast and would get so tickled confronting us.

May God comfort all of you until you are with your Mother again.

I can just picture Faye and Frank together again.

“ Jim and I lived across the street from Frank and Fay for many years. You could not have asked for better neighbors, but beyond that, you could not have asked for better friends! I will never forget hauling Frank over half of Lake Oologah because our boat motor was not strong enough to pull him up out of the water, while Faye kept us laughing with her wry humor. We had so much fun together! This was a great time in my life, and I am so glad Faye was a part of it...would not have been NEAR as much fun without her. Great family, wonderful sense of humor, and always a smile on her lips. I have been in Colorado for the last 17 years, and am sorry I missed aging alongside Faye...she would have made aging more fun! It is so sad we no longer have Faye with us, but I know I have been truly blessed for the time our family knew her as our friend.

“ Faye (Opal Faye) and I shared a wonderful late in life companionship for some several years. Coming from opposite poles of experience we shared the deeper meaning of each other's lives while on this short journey through what we call "life". I have the warmest memories of Faye and look back sadly at her having suffered stroke and the times that must always follow such a sad turning of events. An incredibly strong, self determined woman, Faye has set an example to any of us that think we had a "tough" growing up. She will be so.... missed. Tim D
