“ It has been a very, painfully, long 3 months since I've heard your voice. You can not even begin to know how many times I have picked up the phone to call or text you. You've left I void in my heart that will never be filled. I admired your courage, tenacity, intelligence, humor, and wit. I always knew I could count on you to get me back on track when it seemed my train was derailing. There isn't a day that goes by when I don't think of you, mom or dad. While I should feel comfort saying, "until we meet again", I don't. I miss you more and more every day. I love you deeper than any sister could love another sister. You changed the lives you touched and people were better for knowing you. I still cannot believe you are gone. I love you more than you will ever know. Rest easy and...until we meet again.

“ Patricia Newell made my brothers life whole, for that I am eternally grateful, but, Pat was so much more. I admired her in so many ways, especially her personality and intelligence. Our conversations could go on for hours and finally we would just have to stop. A great loss to our family, we love you.
