“ Sue was so spunky and cute. I loved being in her company, especially for her feisty play in our monthly neighborhood bunco games, and we all missed her terribly when they moved to Grand Lake. Even after she lost the love of her life and ultimately returned to Stonebridge-- and bunco!-- she was still pretty feisty, despite her encroaching illness. Stacie and family, in your grief, I know you'll always remember her as she was then and as she is again now with your beloved Dad by her side. Love and prayers as you say good bye to an amazing lady. We all love you.
