“ When Uncle Alan was active military, he was stationed in Japan... I was about 14 yrs old at the time (now 57). We would write back and forth. He would tell me all about Japan and how he was playing “Rugby” ( a Japanese version of football). I can remember checking the mailbox as a little girl hoping to get a letter from him. He always took time out of his day to write back to me.
Thank you for your service to our country Uncle Alan.
You truly will be sadly missed.
Rest Easy ❤️
Love, Tammy

“ My dad is forever, forever a legend, forever the first man I ever loved and taught me love. Taught me everything, everything I am and everything I have is because of you dad. I'll cherish the memory of you cooking Christmas dinner in your hawaiian shirts, teaching me to drive a stick shift, packing and unpacking the same lunch box for thirty years. I love you with every part of my being
