

Angela "Angie" Nicole Phillips

September 13, 1972 - October 19, 2021

Angela "Angie" Nicole Phillips was born on September 13, 1972, in Rochelle, Illinois to Curtis Jay Paulsen and Luann (Sparks) Stych. She passed from this life on Tuesday, October 19, 2021, in Tulsa, Oklahoma at the age of 49 years. Angie was raised on her family farm in Pea Ridge, Arkansas and graduated as Valedictorian with the Pea Ridge High School Class of 1990. She went on to further her education and was on the All-American Pom Squad at the University of Northern Iowa before transferring to John Brown University in Siloam Springs, Arkansas, where she earned her bachelor's degree in business. She spent most of her working life working for herself as a Pampered Chef Director, but had most recently been teaching Special Education at Oologah Public Schools. She also worked as a driving instructor at A Safer Driving School in Owasso. Angie was a faithful and active member of First Baptist Church in Owasso where she volunteered with Kings Kids, served at youth camps, and went on a mission trip with the church to Peru. In her spare time, Angie enjoyed a variety of past times such as watching Hallmark movies, watching Wheel of Fortune and America Says, and cheering on her Arkansas Razorbacks. Those she leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:

“ Landon and I will never forget Angie , she was Landon's teacher at Oologah Schools. It's currently 2024 and Landon still talks about her. She touched my life with her sweet and funny personality and she truly cared for the kids...I will never forget her.

“ If only there had been a free, safe, and effective vaccine that could have prevented this.

“ To all who loved Angie - I know there are no words of comfort that can make the pain of the loss you are experiencing go away. Only you and the Lord know the pain that you are in. He grieves when you grieve and cries tears when you cry. There are always many unanswered questions, the main one being "why". I pray that as you search for the "why" you will remember the smiles and joy that you shared. The moments that brought tears of joy and laughter to your eyes. The struggles that you overcame together. If there are things that you said or never got around to saying, do not let them weigh on you. Angie knows your heart. May you be blessed with memories of love. In Jesus Name I pray. Amen.

I first meant Angie when she was 6yrs old,not having any children at that time in my life, I immediately feel in love with her and her brother Brett! What a beautiful,funny, giggling little girl she was! This was in oskaloosa, Ia,she moved away with her family to Pea Ridge,years later I was working at a factory named Paslode and in comes this beautiful, giggly ,funny girl! We had an awesome summer working together ,we did lots of "dares" together that summer we worked together! I'm soooooo very sorry to hear shes passed away! Heaven has gained an amazing angel! Love to all her family and friends !I'm soooooo sad ,love you giggly ,fun ,beautiful Angie ❤️❤️

“ Angie had the best sense of humor and the most generous heart. Her love for the Lord inspired you to strive to do better yourself. No matter what, she was there with an encouraging word. I know she is walking with Jesus and watching over her loved ones. Until we meet again my sister. ❤️

“ Angie and I grew up together! Many sleep overs, we played basketball together, our dads both ran race horses. She loved my moms homemade sweet pickles. Normally could not get a word in edgewise. She was a fast talker! She always invited “the school” anyone who would come, to her grandmas for cinnamon rolls. 😊. Loved by all! She will be greatly missed. 💔❤️ Until we see each other again Angie. Love you!
