“ I have many memories of growing up with all of the girls in the family. We had good times at our grandmother's house and also at each others homes when we visited. I remember staying with you in Ft Wayne before you moved to Michigan. I was fascinated with your big doll that you strapped to your feet and could dance with her. Even though we haven't kept in touch that often, it was good to hear from you from time to time. Will miss you very much. Always in my heart. Anne

I am Barb's cousin & have many memories growing up in Indiana. We had many family get togethers & so much fun with Barb & Deb. Remember going to Ft Wayne & staying at their house. We laughed so much my uncle Clyde got mad. It was never ending laughing. That was Barb always sweet & full of laughter. We have had some contact in last few years but definitely not enough. She certainly will me missed by many. Caroline Mironenko
