“ BF meant the world to me and a next door neighbor growing up in Owasso. He was my first employer (I mowed his lawn!) and was all in all a great encourager and friend. How wonderful to think he's reunited with Dorothy and of course JESUS. What an amazing man, life and legacy. Love you BF!!!

“ I remember so many wonderful Christmases at my Uncle BF's home. From the time I was a small child we shared Christmases together in Oklahoma or wherever we were. Aunt Dorothy and Uncle BF Were always a part of my childhood Christmases. Their home was loving and filled with music, the smells of wonderful cooking, and laughter in the kitchen. Uncle BF would read the Christmas story to all of us.

My favorite thing about Uncle BF was his deep, gentle voice. I would know his quiet chuckle if I heard it anywhere. You could always tell when he was amused on the phone, because you could hear him smiling when he talked, and you could hear that beautiful little laugh of his. It was my favorite thing about him, aside from all the wonderful things that he was to all of us.

Godly, faithful, loving, patient, gentle and wise—he was also deliberate, generous and inclusive towards everyone. He planned and made room for others to be successful as he succeeded in business. He was a true and honest man even when it was costly to be a truth-teller. He was a pillar and a source for so many men who needed work—including my own father. My family has always been grateful for Uncle Bayard—a true friend and brother.

My Uncle Bayard depended upon God's help daily in building our country's petroleum industry; and God has been faithful in bringing it all to fruition for such times as these. May God be praised.
