“ My husband and I use to see Bernie at Walmart on Saturday mornings with Debbie and her husband shopping for groceries. Bernie always had a smile and liked being around family and people she knew. God bless you Bernie on your journey through heaven.

“ I've been trying to come up with the words all weekend, but I'm still at a loss.. just as we all are without her... Grandma Bernie played a huge role in helping my parents raise me... She was the "The Village" that we all often hear about when it comes to parenthood. I have just as many childhood memories in her home as I do in mine. She always had the best treats, the coolest knick knacks, & made me the best soup (it was Lipton's Chicken Noodle & I still swear by it to this day 🍲), She was my life size Barbie Doll... She always let me do her hair & make up & paint her nails & toes & no matter how ridiculous I made her look, she always looked in the mirror with her green or blue eyeshadow on and said "Wow!!! I look fantastic!" 🤩 I had the privilege of Face Timing with her for a few moments before she left this world for a better one & the first thing I noticed was her new haircut and her blue painted nails.. I told her how nice she looked & how much I loved her blue nails... I'd give anything to give her another "makeover" & I bet you dollars to donuts that I could've talked her into it so she could be all dolled up & ready to see Grandpa again. ☐❤️ I miss her tremendously.

“ Aunt Bernie was one my favorite people that I have shared this journey with. She was so much fun to be with, always willing to listen to anything you needed to say without judgement and very generous with whatever she had. I will miss her and am grateful to have known and loved her. Mary Tuseo

“ Bernie was a very special lady to me and my husband. I will never forget when we were stationed overseas (retired military) Bernie knew how much my husband loved "Deviled Dogs cakes, and she would send us care packages of them. It was such a treat for us. Things like this was how Bernie was. A very caring person. I will miss her dearly. May you rest in peace always. Love you Bernie.

“ I knew Bernie since I was 17. Later in life she became my mother in law. It was a honor and privilege to be her daughter. She love dancing, joking around, and she would laugh so hard she couldn't speak. What I will remember most of all was cooking for her. She was the best mother in law a person could ever ask for. She will be missed immensely.

“ My heart is hurting, missing Ms. Bernie! I love all of stories, and how she would tell me food I made was almost perfect, so close. I just needed to keep trying and she would tell me when I got it perfect. My heart, love and prayers to the whole family, especially my best friend, Scott! I'm here for all of you!
