

Billie Jean Brown

September 3, 1942 - May 29, 2023

Billie Jean Brown was born September 3, 1942, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, to Wesley Warren Mattoon and Jewel Marie Ballard Mattoon. She died Monday, May 29, 2023, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, at the age of 80 years. Billie completed her secondary education in Tulsa and was a graduate of Central High School. She was married November 22, 1962, in Tulsa to Joe E. Brown. She spent much of her professional career in banking as a teller. She also helped her husband Joe at his print shop in Owasso. Billie had attended Westport Mennonite Brethren Church in Collinsville, Oklahoma, but more recently attended First Baptist Church in Tulsa. She enjoyed a variety of pastimes, especially arts and crafts and going to craft festivals. She enjoyed spending time outdoors birdwatching. Billie was also a caretaker to everyone, whether family or friend. She dearly loved her grandchildren and great grandchildren, and was fond of her role as “Nana Brown” and “Gigi”. Those she leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:

Daughter; Cheryl Burns and husband Mark

Granddaughter; Angelina Ramsey and husband Kenneth

Great grandchildren; Krista, Kaylee, and Kenneth Wesley Ramsey

J.D. Brown, Amanda O Bray, Rebecca Brown, and Spencer Brown

Sister; Louise Lozano and husband Dave

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Joe Brown, son, David Wesley Brown, sisters, Jenny Chandler and Barbara Fowler, and brother, Charlie Mattoon.

“ Sorry to hear the passing of my childhood friend. We grew up together and went thru the 1st thru the 12th grades together. Along with Pat Miller, and several other dear friends. We were life long friends as was our parents. She will be greatly missed even tho I never saw much of her she was always in my thoughts...my condolences to her son and daughter and aunts and uncles who I knew dearly. Love and prayers to all.
