“ Cyd and family,
I have never known a world without Bill Farley in it. He was quite a man! He was always smiling and let's face it, he was always a bit ornery. I remember riding in the truck between Bill and Daddy. Holly and I used to try to “get left” at church so Bill and Cyd or Leroy and Rosie would have to take us to wherever we needed to go.
What an example of a faithful servant of the Lord. It is a blessing to know we will all see him again in heaven.

“ Cyd and family, you've known me since I was born. I remember my entire childhood Bill being at church on Main Street and at every church event. He was a great man of faith. His laugh was the funniest thing and it always made me giggle. He was such a great friend to my dad (Nick) and my uncle (Bill). Bill sang in the choir for many years, as did I, and he never missed a practice. He usually provided the jokes, too. You guys went on float trips with the choir and came to my parents' house for choir "socials" and New Years' Eve parties. When I was about 9 we got a pony and kept it at Bill's house for several months. I loved riding the pony out there behind your house. I went to Standard Auto many times with my dad, and Bill would always tease me, always! I think he had the parts books memorized. I'm so sorry for your loss and I know without a doubt Bill will be waiting to welcome you in heaven. He made the world a better, smiley place.
