“ My Pepa was one of the first men that I loved. He always spoiled me and would fix my clippity clop (rocking horse) when she would break when I was little. He would let me snuggle in his recliner with him and watch movies. Summertime with him was the best adventures growing up. I know he will be wearing those boots in heaven because this world lost a good man. Rest In Peace Pepa, I will always love you, thank you for always loving me!
