“ Doug - I am praying for you, Creed and Brent, as well as Dana. I am so sorry for your loss. As a younger cousin I was never really close to her but enjoyed her presence each time there was a family gathering. I pray the memories of her presence will be a joyful remembrance for you. “ Yes, our mother, Brenda's Aunt Ann. did call Brenda her princess. For me, Brenda was always my beanie, still in text messages we have shared during the past year, I still called Brenda my beanie. I will miss you and our conversations, Brenda was a beautiful and cherished cousin to me.

Oh how I wish I could come today but I just couldn't make it work. Brenda was my cousin and we spent many hours getting into all kinds of trouble when we were young. My favorite times were at our grandparents farm, riding horses and visiting our hillbilly neighbors. I loved her like a sister. Condolences to Creed and Doug as they grieve her passing. The sound of her laugh is forever imprinted in my ears - it was great! I will always miss my cuz❤️
