

Brian L. Johnson

December 15, 1968 - August 31, 2015

'Brian L. Johnson was born December 15, 1968, in Fort Worth, Texas, to Paul Rufus and Judith Ellen (White) Johnson. He died Monday, August 31, 2015, at Ramona, Oklahoma, at the age of 46 years. Brian was reared and educated in Mineral Wells, Texas, and attended Mineral Wells High School. He spent most of his working life as a glazier with Advantage Glass in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He enjoyed a variety of pastimes including fishing. He also enjoyed riding and working with horses. He was a gentleman, helping anyone who was in need with a smile on his face. Loving family members include: Three children; Summer Johnson, of Texas R.D. Johnson, of Stillwater, OK Breanna Johnson, of Bixby, OK "His Lov" Cindi Roush and her family Jeremy and Naomi White and their son Jack of Owasso Parents Paul and Judith Johnson of Rigby, Idaho Brother Jeff Johnson and wife Patricia of Columbia, South Carolina Sister Barbara McKenna and husband Alvin of Rigby, Idaho Brother in law Michael Hendricks and a host of other relatives and friends. Graveside funeral service and interment will be held 1:00 p.m. Friday, September 4, 2015, at Washington Cemetery in rural Foyil, Oklahoma with Pastor Derk Madden and Jeremy White officiating. Arrangements and services were entrusted to Mowery Funeral Service of Owasso. www.moweryfs.com'

Tribute Wall

LD

“ 'Miss you Brian, Every time I drive by a building you and I worked together on, I think of your craftsmanship and talent you put in each project! Something that is few and far between nowadays. You and your dedication will be truly missed. I am blessed to have gotten to know and work with you.'

Larry Daniels - September 03, 2015 at 05:02 AM

DA

“ 'Just a friend for a little while, but I felt like I knew you for years. Brother you will be missed.'

Dotty Ator - September 02, 2015 at 07:46 PM