“ I remember a wonderful summer evening when Carolyn joined us 20-something ladies of Columbia Baptist for a dessert extravaganza. What a lovely lady to spend time with! I missed her when she left to go back west. I feel fortunate to have known her. - Rebecca Jones

“ I knew Carolyn through church. She had the gifts of hospitality and administration. She was also an encourager. I worked in the church office before retiring and she would stop in to chat and encourage me. I loved and admired her so much. CBC and BCHO both greatly benefited from her tireless service. Well done my friend!

“Carolyn was a beloved friend and one of our all-time favorite Columbians. We spent a lot of time with her, and her departure from Northern Virginia saddened us, though we were glad to see her return to OK (for her sake). We are also saddened by her departure from this world, but glad to know that her faith in Jesus Christ has ushered her into the next. What a remarkable woman of God!

“Dear Kent and Jamie. Some of my fondest memories are of Carolyn and Jim, Norma and George, Sue and Max and the fun times Bettye Kaye and I shared with them, especially the eight times a year we dreamed up hilarious ways to foist a “surprise” birthday celebration on the victim. It’s hard for me to realize that all four earthly Angels have left us to be the real thing with God and the four “less than” are still kicking. I guess God has His priorities. Anyway, BK and I loved Carolyn and I know the four of them are rejoicing again. Gary Evans
