Charles Edward Morrison was born July 15, 1932, and passed over the be with his Lord and with his beloved wife , Dean, on December 8, 2022. Charles was born in Searcy County, Arkansas, and lived in Michigan and Ohio after his military service. He had served his country honorably with the United States Army during the Korean War. He and Dean moved the family to Oklahoma in 1972, where they lived in Owasso and Collinsville since that time.

In the 1990's he became a merchant and he and Dean operated Morrison's Country Store at the intersection of 96th Street North and 177th East Avenue in Owasso until their retirement in 2000, living above the store for many years. It was there that he was beloved "Mr. Charley" to the families in that area, particularly the children who loved his long candy aisle and Mr. Charley's broad smile.

After retirement, Charles and Dean lived in Collinsville, until Dean passed in 2013. Later, Charles lived in the Owasso Baptist Villages's Unity Square apartments. For the last year, he has been well cared for at the Claremore Veteran's Center, where he passed quietly in his sleep. Charles's family wishes to express their deep gratitude to the nurses and staff at the Veteran's Center for the excellent and loving care Charles received there.
