“ This amazing man drove me to school with Brian and Nigel more times than I can count. He let me be me, laughed with me (or was it at me), encouraged me and allowed me to call him dad. I think he tolerated me mostly! His calming words were always on point and heart felt, regardless of the antics we were displaying. He was always a voice of reason in a chaotic teen life. As an adult, I have told many people this, but I never told him. Dad, you made a huge impact on my life. I will miss you in this life, but will see you in the next!

“ Uncle Charlie will dearly be missed. I met him only a few times, but we spent a lot of time together in the summer of 2008 when my family and myself drove to Oklahoma. Uncle Chalrie reminded me so much of my grandfather (his brother) it just made me feel at home. Uncle Charlie was exceptionally close to my mother Maria where they are now joined together in heaven watching down on us all. To my OK family,I am very sorry for your loss and I love you all
