“ 'This is David McLaughlin, I never met Larry but heard about him from my mother, Naomi McLaughlin. She was a childhood friend of Wandas. Mom told me stories of her best friend Wanda many times. One was that as school children they were only allowed to check out 5 books so they both being avid readers would check out 5 each and trade books half way thru the week! I had aly's hoped to meet Layty but geography and time did not cooperate. Rest in peace Larry and say hello to both our Moms! I too have 3 sons and hope that the three of you got to have that father and son talk that we all intend to have but sometimes never get around to. Peace to all from us-- David and Anita McLaughlin.'
