“ I wish I could have reached out before this. She was great and a good teacher. She was firm handed but fair as I remember her in the 90's. I still remember those days in the CCA, even if at the time I resented it.

“ Cheryl was such a big part of my childhood. I was not wealthy growing up and had a lot of hard times and she made it so much easier for me to be able to be a kid, taking me after morning church on Sunday so I could have tea/play board games and other things. She gave my family extra bread so we would have food and would get me clothes when I needed them. It's been a long time since I talked to anyone from the church but I'm in college now, and she's one of the biggest reasons. Condolences to the family, Rest In Peace Sister Cheryl “ Sorry is not enough when a loved one passes. She was loved by so many and will be so missed. I would comment on the beautiful things she created on FB. She was so talented and I just loved her posts at Christmas showing her beautiful trees & decor. I played Bride with my sister but I always picked Cheryl. I remember the wedding and I was in awe of her beauty inside & out. This is not goodbye but see you soon Cheryl. She is in heaven having the time of her life seeing loved ones in heaven.

“ I will always remember her sweet voice, and caring nature. Although I only had her as a teacher in kindergarten she made an impact on me. Whenever I saw her through the years, and connecting again by social media, she was always the most kind woman. May we all strive to impact the world in a positive way just like Sis Cheryl did.
