

Christopher Charles McGee

November 7, 1938 - January 12, 2022

Christopher Charles McGee was born November 7, 1938, in Forestburg, Texas, to William Pryor McGee and Vera Mae Perryman McGee. He died Wednesday, January 12, 2022, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, at the age of 83 years. Chris was reared and educated in Forestburg, Texas, and graduated with the Forestburg High School Class of 1957. He was married April 18, 1958, in Bowie, Texas, to Bettie Maxine Watts. Chris spent most of his working life in the printing business as a printer. In later years, he also worked in the oil and gas industry as a pumper. Chris was a veteran of the armed forces having served his country honorably with the United States Army National Guard. He and his wife made their home in Collinsville, Oklahoma, since 2015. Chris was a faithful follower of Christ from an early age, and he served as a deacon for over forty years at the various churches he attended. He was a revered member of the Collinsville Free Will Baptist Church of Collinsville. Chris enjoyed a variety of pastimes, especially tinkering in his shop, and was a talented carpenter and small engine repairman. He also enjoyed rodeos and watching old Western movies, especially those featuring John Wayne. Chris never met a stranger; he loved to talk to people at church, at the café, at the donut shop, or at the pharmacy – all places he visited frequently. He loved his grandchildren who affectionately knew him as “Papa”. Those he leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:
