

Connie Jean VanPatten

December 24, 1959 - September 26, 2021

Connie Jean VanPatten was born December 24, 1959, in Newton, Iowa, to Thomas Martin and Eleta Kay Dye Spencer. She died Sunday, September 26, 2021, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, at the age of 61 years. Connie completed her secondary education at Carl Junction, Missouri, and graduated with Carl Junction High School Class of 1978. She was married June 3, 1978, in Joplin, Missouri, to Anthony A. VanPatten. Connie worked with Wal-Mart and Reasor's, but primarily was a customer service representative with the Avis Call Center. She also took pride as a mother and homemaker caring for her family. She enjoyed singing Gospel and playing the piano. She served The Kingdom Campground Church and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Connie cared for many people and enjoyed making people happy. She was affectionately known as "Grandma" to her grandkids. Those she leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:

“ My mom Connie Vanpatten was always there to wish anyone and everyone a Happy Birthday or just to see how they were doing. She loved other people more than herself. She loved playing the piano while singing gospel songs. She was a very family oriented woman and always made sure we knew how much she loved each of us. Fly high mamma and show off your amazing voice to those other angels until we meet again.
