“ We met in third hour history. A small inside joke formed about how the word "reconquista" was the funniest thing. We would write it on the white board constantly. We eventually asked if we can bring in a plushie and name it "reconquista". Obviously our teacher said no and we didn't take no for an answer. We often ate oranges together so we took a spare one and a sharpie. We wrote "reconquista" on it and gave it to the teacher. He shook his head and laughed. Friday February 9th during third hour I was informed that the one I shared jokes and oranges with had passed. I hope to share this memory like we once shared oranges.
