“ We'll all celebrate life a little more every day when we remember having Dale as a friend and I'm thankful I got to hear him tell a story or two; and an occasional joke. We'll miss him terribly, but never forget the kind of man he was.

“ To condense 30 years of friendship, travels, misfortune and plain fun into a few words; where does one start? From the first day I met Dale he was outgoing and friendly. We were neighbors working at the same place, that friendly hello became conversation, which became sharing of hobbies, ideas and companionship. Dale was a man that drew simple joy from the completion of a hard days work, being productive. Teaching others and sharing his skills, never forgetting to learn from others as well. Dale was an honest humble sharing man that could find enjoyment in riding a motorcycle to no place in particular and stopping at an out of the way place for the night; just to enjoy a sliced apple some cheese and an Odouls and watch the sun go down on a wonderful day along whatever road we were on. Dale was a role model exemplified hard work, yet humble. I hope to see him again one day riding his Goldwing on that golden road somewhere in the promised land. Don M.

“ Dale and his wife Dovie have been wonderful, faithful friends for many years. We will miss Dale with all our hearts. What a knowledgeable and funny person. He was truly unique. Only God can make them like Dale. I know we were blessed by knowing him. I also know he is in Heaven with Jesus whole and happy.

“ We've lost one of the best of his generation. He was the kind of goodness and strength that made this country great. I was honored to know him by family stories, especially Sheila, and to meet him at the 60th Anniversary Party. What a Man!
