“ Tim and family- we offer you our dearest condolences during this unimaginable time of loss. During the worst of losses for us, the redeeming part might be that they were only separated from one another for only a week. May they rest together for eternity. May their memories comfort you for eternity. My father worked with yours and our parents were friends and churchmates. I imagine that my parents surely welcomed yours into heaven.

“ Dan, Joyce, Tracy and Tim Lincicome were my family's neighbors while I was growing up in Owasso OK. The Lincicome's were wonderful neighbors and really good friends of my parents. Me and my siblings were close in age Tracy and Tim so we were all friends. It is really hard to believe we have lost this lovely couple so close together may they rest in peace. My family and I want to express our sincerest condolences to their entire family for their loss.
