“ Our prayers are with you. Darrell was always so kind and encouraging, even when he had physical problems. We have known Darrell and Dorothy both for several years at First Baptist Church, Owasso, and they were always so interested in the missionary work that God called us to do in Papua New Guinea. May God bless and comfort you, Dorothy, and each of Darrell's family members and friends. (Michael and Faith Turner)

“ My wife and I go to church with Darrell and Dorothy at First Baptist Church in Owasso, but got to know them because they lived across the street from my parents at the Baptist Village. What great neighbors they were to my folks, and what a great example of what God intended for for a Christian marriage to look like. Randy and Karen Gorrell
