“ I am so sorry for your loss. I am his half-sister who has just found him. I am three years older and was adopted in Pittsburgh PA. I know our mom has passed as well at 57 and he is gone too young. I would have loved to have gotten to know him. My birth name is Sharon Lynn Gross. My legal name now is Elaine K Fry, Sharon, PA. Please call if you are able to connect some dots for me. 724-308-7755

“David was my best friend in our adult years. He was kind, considerate and had a genuine interest in everyone he shared his life with. Raised by a single parent in Ohio and an avid Cincinnati Reds fan. His Mother took him to baseball games and she was his inspiration that led to his passion for sports, collectibles and the athletes he enjoyed watching.

Family and Friends were so important to him. He cherished holidays with his family and always brought a happier mood to those that struggled during these times. Spending the days with David during the holidays always caused people to pause and forget about material things and focus on the moment with laughter, lightness and love.

David spent the majority of his life working with people that had a dream. He helped young and old alike to get an education and pursue their life to the fullest. Everyone that worked beside him, below him and above him was attracted to the positive, sincere approach he took in life and work.

His wife was his rock. All of her family and friends were his joy. His focus was on people and while he would have loved to win "the lottery" - being around those that he cared for and loved was what he valued most. His prize in life was always the people that surrounded him.

I never met 1 person that disliked David. Those that knew him, loved him. He was easy to like, easy to approach and his friendships were based on unconditional terms. His contagious laughter and simple approach to life was delightful.

Just like everyone who knew David Michael Gross, I'm in a state of disbelief and mourning. For 35 years I was fortunate to know and love him. We had 1000's of memories together and I will cherish his positive contribution to my life for the rest of my years.

I love you Brother Dave! You left this earth too soon and I'll see you on the other side my good dude!

“ There are no words to make missing this wonderful man any easier. David and I worked together at Concorde and were becoming even closer friends then I got sick. David will always have a special place in my heart. He talked about you, Darlene, every time we talked. You were the love of his life. Sending prayers and hugs!

“ What can I say about David that wont be said by anyone else/ HE was the most sensitive MALE I knew. Felt everyone else's pain. And funny, kept me laughing at work and I enjoyed him coming into my office with his huge glass bowls to warm in the microwave- I would ask- "do you need some Tupperware?" OH no he says, this is so I can eat on it all day. Had nicknames for several people, including me and we will really miss hearing that. A true trooper who was at work mostly everyday, even though he didnt feel well. We truly are a work family here and he is loved and will be missed terribly. He will forever be in my memory bank. Rest in peace my friend, I know you'll be with "mom" and see if you can look up my brother for me. You'd love each other!
