“ Sorry to hear about David's loss. I knew David from first participating in choir at First Christian Church in Owasso. No question that David has earned his heavenly reward. He was so friendly, personable and easy to talk to, regardless of what the subject might be. My prayers are with Teri and the entire family with their loss.

“ David was always willing to help out whatever he was asked. He served as an Elder of First Church and his quite spirit was felt. He loved to sing for worship services morning and evening. We will remember him with great respect.
