“ *'We share your sadness and sorrow at this time. The little Dennis growing up was known as the little funny boy . It was a pleasure to share with his proud parents teaching and training him in every way. Remember.....Dennis is not lost.....We know where he is, and how can you lose anything when you know where it is ? Yes. his presence is lost, and always missed, but we know where he is and that we will see him again. \r\n John 6:47 \r\n " I tell you the truth, he who believes has everlasting life." \r\n '*

“ ‘I got to know Dennis through old Verizon coworkers several years ago. We all had fun together. Several of us used to go to PAC events and we"d have a great time going out for dinner and drinks and catching up with each other. We would then make our usual trip to Glacier for our chocolate fix and then head to the show. I have missed those times since I moved from Tulsa. I hope that Grace and Jack know how special they were to their father. He was very proud of you both. I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.’
