Diana Joy Leland was born August 4, 1950, in Coffeyville, Kansas, to Kenneth Jay and Rosalie Mae Yeubanks Hepner. She died Sunday, July 25, 2021, in Oologah, Oklahoma, at the age of 70. Diana was educated in Coffeyville, Kansas, and was a graduate of Field Kindley High School. She was baptized April 2, 1965, at the First Christian Church of Coffeyville. She attended Coffeyville Community College where she continued her education and was a cheerleader for the Red Ravens. Diana completed her education at Pittsburg State University in Pittsburg, Kansas, earning her bachelor's degree in business. She was married to her first husband, Larry C. Long, and together had two children, Aaron and Lisa. She spent much of her working life as an office manager in accounting and billing as well as human resources. She was married December 7, 1990, in Miami, Oklahoma, to Jeff Leland. As a young lady she enjoyed being a Brownie and a Girl Scout, spending time at the lake with her family, modeling, cheerleading, and teasing with her sister and brother. As a mama, she loved singing cute little songs and those songs were passed down to her grandchildren and great grands even. She especially enjoyed her grandkids who affectionately knew her as "Grandma Di Di". She was given that name from her first nephew, Jody.

At the young age of 42, she suffered a massive stroke and brain aneurysm that left her disabled. The years following having mini strokes and falls, taking a toll on her. “ 1. My cousins Diana and Janie took us for a ride in their car up a steep hill and couldn't go any farther, I can't remember why but Diana had to turn around and we were all scared but Diana got us down ok lol. 2. We came down for a visit and Christopher and Aaron played pool in Rosalie's basement while us girls were upstairs, Diana, Susie and I, Mom and Rosalie had Joseph in the other room, we visited Grandma Menefee's and got 5 generation pictures. Aunt Jeanette gave me her BMW to drive so we all could go shopping, we had so much fun. 3. We all drove down for Grandma Menefee's funeral and stayed with Aunt Rosalie and Diana brought Lisa. I brought Grandma Juanita, Mom, and Stephanie with me. Lisa Slept with Rosalie, Mom on couch, Grandma slept in spare room and Stephanie and I slept in another room on a pull out bed, we had biscuits and gravy in the morning. I always thought Diana and Janie were the most beautiful ladies on the planet when we were all younger (inside and out), they still are.

“ *Diana was my "ex" Mother in Law on paper. But always "Mama" in my heart. I loved her dearly.
My special memory was several phone calls from her, even after she didnt have too, just to say "Hi, how are you doing?" She was so genuine and kind. Couldn't have asked for a better Grandmother to my children. I am blessed to have been part of your journey. Love you and God bless you beautiful soul.
Thoughts and prayers to her entire family*
