

Donald Dayton Hogue, SR.

March 30, 1936 - March 14, 2023

Donald Dayton Hogue, Sr., was born March 30, 1936, in Verdigris, Oklahoma, to Walter Alexander Hogue and Lille Belle O'Neal Hogue. He died Tuesday, March 14, 2023, in Haskell, Oklahoma, at the age of 86 years. Don was reared and educated in Catoosa, Oklahoma, and graduated with the Catoosa High School Class of 1954. He was married May 22, 1958, to Shirley Jean Wadsworth. Don spent most of his working life as a master craftsman and skilled carpenter. He was a strong man of faith and a longtime active member of the Catoosa Assembly of God, where he served as Youth leader, Sunday School Teacher, Sunday School superintendent, and Deacon. In recent years, he was a faithful member of Haskell First Assembly of God. Donald loved to hunt and fish. He loved golf and went twice a week until the age of 86. Don dearly loved his family and was especially fond of his role as Pawpaw. He loved telling others about the love of Jesus Christ every chance he got. Those he leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:

“ I know that Don was a very Godly, kind man. He is rejoicing in heaven with Jesus, family and friends who have gone one before him. But still it's a loss that hurts family and close friends.

You are all in my thoughts and prayers.
