“ I’m missing you today something fierce. No reason: no birthday celebration, or anniversary, or missed celebration whatsoever....just missing you. I heard your favorite song by Hoagy Carmichael “Stardust”, and it left me sitting in a memory of you and i thumbing through your ‘78’s; playing this song, and that. I’m so glad....with the many, many differences between us...that we could agree that “Stardust” is the most beautifully written song to date. I’m still holding it in my heart: both the song, and the memories of our shared music. -Always your daughter, Sharone

“ Deacon Don was a great man. Our sons worked around him at Saint Henry church while they were growing up and remember him as a wonderful and spirited man! He was to us simply a good man who made the world a better place with his own special style. We are sorry for the loss of Deacon Don and pray for comfort for his family.
