“ Way back in 2010 when Doug was working in Afghanistan and Iraq, he would always spent most of his R & R here in General Luna, Quezon , Philippines. He would gather a dozen kids and would bring them in town to buy presents and before he goes back to work, he would gather all those kids again and give them money. That has been his routine everytime he is here in the Philippines. The kids, all grown ups now will surely miss their Uncle Douglas and will forever be in their hearts. Their Uncle Douglas who has been generous and kind to them.
