

Douglas Glenn Higbee

July 30, 1944 - February 5, 2020

Douglas Glenn Higbee was born July 30, 1944, in Winfield, Kansas, to Glenn Archer and Helen Jean Nichols Higbee. He died Wednesday, February 5, 2020, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, at the age of 75 years. Doug was reared and educated in Kansas starting in Rock, Kansas, before moving with his family to Wichita, Kansas, where he graduated with the Wichita West High School Class of 1962. After working in several gas stations, he decided to enlist in the United States Army where he served his country honorably during the Vietnam War. He became involved in the first major troop movement to Vietnam, immediately following the Gulf of Tonkin incident in August of 1964.

Doug spent the next 13 months going from Saigon to Da Nang, eventually serving in Phu Bai, Vietnam, approximately 55 kilometers below the DMZ. He was later assigned to the National Security Agency in Ft. Meade, Maryland, from 1965 to 1969. His final overseas duty was to Udorn, Thailand, at a radio research station.

He married Glenda Brooks in 1966 and had two children, daughter, Traci Glynne Higbee, born in 1970 and son Christopher Edward Higbee, born in 1973.

Following his discharge from the Army, Doug held several positions in the transportation industry for Roadway Express, Searle Pharmaceuticals and Sherwin Williams. During this time, he gradually put himself through college working full time and going to school at night. He earned a business degree at Richland College in Dallas, Texas, and later an Industrial Engineering degree at East Texas State University, which later became a branch of Texas A & M.

In 1990, Doug moved from Atlanta, Georgia, to Coffeyville, Kansas, to accept a job as Director of Transportation for Aptus Environmental Services, a division of Westinghouse. It was there he met and married Marilyn Jane Kemp on April 26, 1991. He and Marilyn had gone back to Georgia to complete the sale of his home and during the drive home stopped in Sallisaw, Oklahoma, at a Subway Sandwich Shop. Upon returning to Coffeyville, Doug applied for a contractor's license, hired his own sub-contractors, and purchased a Subway Franchise. After completing the Subway Training School in Bridgeport, Connecticut, he and Marilyn opened their first store in July of 1992. After much early success, they eventually opened nine Subways and three Java Dave's Coffee Shops.

Doug closed those shops in 2007 then moved to Owasso, Oklahoma. He enjoyed a variety of pastimes including playing golf. He and Marilyn enjoyed traveling together, especially taking trips on cruises. Doug was an avid reader and enjoyed tracing his ancestry which was back to Scotland and inspired his love for bagpipe music. However, one of his greatest loves was for animals, particularly dogs.

Doug was loved dearly by many family and friends and will be greatly missed. Those he leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:

“ Doug and Marilyn were neighbors and friends to me and my late husband, John in Independence, Kansas. They were the first to welcome us to our new hometown and became great friends during our time in Independence. I remember fondly many dinners, birthday and anniversary celebrations, and always being entertained by one of Doug's many stories. You will be missed, my friend. Karen Toth
