

Edna Joyce Finley

February 25, 1930 - February 11, 2018

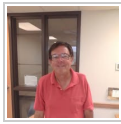

'Edna Joyce Finley was born February 25, 1930, In Meeker, Oklahoma, to Holland and Jane Turner. She died Sunday, February 11, 2018, in Tulsa, Oklahoma, at the age of 87 years. Edna was reared and educated in Meeker, Oklahoma, and was a graduate of Meeker High School. She continued her education at the University of Oklahoma before earning her Masters from Oklahoma State University in 1985. She spent over 33 years with Tinker Air Force Base in Oklahoma City in procurement. She was a longtime faithful member of the First Christian Church in Oklahoma City where she enjoyed singing in the choir and served as a Sunday school teacher. She had made her home in Owasso, Oklahoma, in 2013 to be closer to her family. She enjoyed a variety of pastimes, especially sewing and was an excellent seamstress. Those she leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include: Her son and daughter-in-law; J.R. and Linda Ragsdale, of Owasso, and grandson, Tanner Ragsdale, of Tucson, Arizona. She was preceded in death by her husband, Dean Finley, and brother, Bud Turner. Edna will be laid to rest at the Meeker Cemetery in Meeker, Oklahoma. Arrangements were entrusted to Mowery Funeral Service of Owasso. www.moweryfs.com'

“ 'Edna was a bright light at Oxford. I loved her dearly. She loved everyone, always happy and willing to help in anyway she could. She will be missed. I feel very privileged and honored to have been a care giver for her. She was a beautiful woman on the inside and out. Heaven gained a wonderful angel. '
