Elbert, a WWII veteran, was inducted into the U.S. Army on January 3, 1946. He completed basic training at Camp Crowder Missouri and medical training at Brookes Army Medical Center, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. After completing medical training, he was assigned to the 179th Station Hospital, Adak, Aleutian Islands, Alaska and subsequently assigned as supply clerk for the Mess Hall. He was honorably discharged on May 29, 1947.

On May 9, 1948, Elbert married Emma Adina Decker. Four children were born into this union. At age 21, Elbert received Jesus Christ as his Savior and received the promise of eternal life with God. In September 1952, after farming for a short time in South Dakota, he and family moved to Omaha, Nebraska for Elbert to attend Grace Bible Institute. Elbert also attended classes at the University of Nebraska, Omaha. Elbert graduated from Grace Bible Institute in May 1957 with a BA degree in Missions and a Minor in Christian Education. On August 25, 1957 he was ordained for the ministry at Hutterthal Mennonite Church (now Prairie Bible Church) in Carpenter, South Dakota.
