“ Elfrieda was my husband's aunt. We enjoyed many good times with her - especially when her husband pastored a church in Louisville, KY only and hour from where we live in Indiana. An amazing woman with the cares, heartaches, and joys that a pastor's wife takes on. I was happy to be a friend and confidant. ”

“ My Mom was a faithful servant and the toughest Lady I have ever known. I remember when I was very young and in the kitchen with her. She was chopping ice with an ice pick and stuck the ice pick through her finger into the countertop. She quietly wrapped a rag around her finger, finished chopping the ice and made me a lemonade, never saying a word so she would not frighten me. I have been scared of her my whole life. God rest her soul. Love you Mom and I know you are where you want to be.
