

Enza Christine Gering

June 26, 1970 - June 20, 2022

Enza Christine Crutchfield Gering, 51, of Skiatook, Oklahoma, passed from this life on Monday, 20 June 2022, following a long fight with cancer.

Enza was born on 26 June 1970, in Claremore, Oklahoma, to Beverly Ann (Antle) Crutchfield Love and Barry Lombard Crutchfield.

She was raised and educated in Hominy and Claremore, graduating from Claremore Sequoyah High School in 1989. She spent most of her adult life working in banking, initially for Tulsa Federal Credit Union, later for Bank of the Lakes; she most recently had been working as a cage manager at Osage Casino in Skiatook, where she was recognized as Leader of the Quarter in March of 2019.

In her spare time, Enza enjoyed a variety of pastimes, including golf, attending concerts, travel, being in and around water, and most importantly spending time with her granddaughter, Ellie, who was her life's joy.

In addition, she leaves behind her beloved daughter, Adria Elliott Lindley, son-in-law, Zachary Lindley, and granddaughter, Elliott Rene Lindley, of Tulsa; mother, Beverly Love, and step-father, Terry Love, of Claremore; her brother, Barry George, and sister, Sheila Laderach, both of Claremore; her nieces and nephews, Crystal Hughes, Lyndsey Laderach, Jeremy Crutchfield, Jonathan Endress, and Brandon Maker; and fiancé, Michael Kidder, of Skiatook, as well as many life-long friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, Barry Lombard Crutchfield in 1972, her brother, Robert Lombard Crutchfield, Sr. in 2009, and her nephew, Robert Lombard "Bobby" Crutchfield, Jr in 2021.

Visitation will be held on Thursday, 23 June 2022, from 4:00 to 8:00 pm, with funeral services to be held Friday, 24 June 2022, at 11:00 am. Pastor Mark W. Polson and Pastor David Nagle will be presiding at the Mowery Funeral Service Chapel in Owasso, Oklahoma. Graveside services will follow at the Osage Gardens Cemetery in Skiatook.

A dinner will be held at Hominy Village Community Building, 420 Hamilton Road, Hominy, Oklahoma following her services.
