“ I have been fortunate to have known Fred as a neighbor and a golfing friend. He loved God, his family, and genuinely cared for those around him. He was always happy and had a kind word to share with anyone that listened. I am a better person for knowing him and will miss him greatly. Our loss is heaven's gain.

“ First of all,. I am so sorry for your loss. I saw his obituary and just had to ask. Not sure if Fred is the same person I am thinking of. When I was in the 6th grade in Lubbock, Texas (about 58 years ago---1962 or 1963), I fell at school on the playground and broke my arm. I think he was one of the teachers or coaches that came out and carried me into the school building. He looks like the person I remember, but may not be. I never will forget the incident. I also remember how kind and caring he was. Do you think it might have been Fred? Thank you so much.. Prayers for you all.
