“Gemma and I had a lot of great memories together over the years... way to many to count. It was an honor to be in your wedding and present when the twins were born. I wish I could be there in person but know I am there in spirit. Rest easy my friend and dance with Jesus. One day I will see you on the other side. Miss and love you so much. Kyle and girls - I am praying for all of you and sending hugs. 🙏

“Nancy and I are the 4th row hooligans at Life.Church Catoosa at 11:30. Gemma, Kyle, and their family are a bright spot in this crazy world! Gemma had the sweetest soul that I have ever encountered and we loved seeing her every Sunday. You will be missed Gemma, and we will always cherish your light! John and Nancy Wilmeth

So sorry we could not make it. Kyle is my first cousin and Gemma became my cousin too though we didn't have much time together on this earth we have eternity to catch up. I'm so happy to know she and Kyle have a wonderful caring church family to help Kyle and the girls near the grief they're enduring right now and the days to come. We love them so much. God bless you all!

“ Can't believe you are gone. You were an inspiration to me, a beautiful and intelligent woman with a huge heart. I'm so glad I met you at St. Fran. We clicked right away and even in the short time we had lost touch, we picked up where we left off. I had the best times with you that I'll forever cherish. Our friendship was truly genuine. We could be ourselves in front of each other. I love you forever and always my dear friend! May God heal your family's hearts and ease their pain during this difficult time.

“What I know about Gemma is that she was a dynamic source of love and support for her daughters and grandchildren. She was always taking them shopping or out to eat or having them at her house for sleepovers and good times. She loved all the holidays for they offered one more reason to bring her family together and celebrate life. Gemma was energetic, generous, had a great sense of style and a beautiful smile. Please accept my most heartfelt condolences.
