She passed from this life on Wednesday, December 1, 2021, in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, at the age of 62 years. Glenda moved with her family to the Tulsa area where she completed her secondary education and graduated with the East Central High School Class of 1977. She and Mac had made their home in Fort Gibson, Oklahoma, where she worked at the 4-Mile Stop. She then worked as the office administrator for Advantage Glass Contracting in Tulsa. "Sis," as she was affectionately known by her friends and family, enjoyed a variety of pastimes, especially spending time working in her flower garden. “ Glenda and I met when we were about 10 years old and living in Rantoul, Illinois.
When I met her, i know that I had a friend for life regardless of the miles between us and the years gone by. I still have a ceramic pendant that she made and gave to me with the word "LOVE" inscribed. She couldn't believe that I still had it after all these years. I told her that it was very precious to me, and it was a constant reminder of our friendship and sisterhood. I had planned a visit to see her in July. Unfortunately and regretfully, I had to return to Raleigh, NC sooner than expected. I wish to have been able to go back in time and give her one more hug. I will never forget her and be so very thankful that our paths crossed while her on earth. Until we meet again my dear friend at the pearly gates of Heaven. Much love!

“The first time I saw Glenda was at a church skating party in Tulsa in the Autumn of 1977. She and her sister, Darlene, were twirling around in circles, hands clasped, arms crossed, spinning and laughing, and thoroughly enjoying the moment. I was smitten. So I married her sister.

“Sis” was a live-wire. She was impetuous, and she never did anything at half-throttle. It was always balls-to-the-walls (an old steamship expression for full-tilt boogie, all-out, 110%). She moved at the speed of thought.

I remember family gatherings at her mother’s house on Sunday’s after church. Even if the sermon had been a downer (no offense, Uncle Jim), Sis was the spark plug to inject a little excitement in the conversation.

Aunt Sissy adored my children when they arrived...and all subsequent nephews and nieces that appeared in our growing family. Nathan, Kelly, Nicole, & Justin; Adam and Amylynn, and Allie...and then came the great-nephews and great-nieces... Kodie, Charlee, and Hadley; Charley-Kate, Kaeson, Chandler, and Carson...and was so very excited about the next one, on the way from Justin and Avery. If you had small kids, and Sis knew about them, they were her family.

Sis and Mac loved animals, and she would take them almost everywhere. Her Facebook feed is full of photos and videos of Izzy and Soda frolicking in the yard.

Sis was a hard worker and a good help-meet for Mac. She did everything for him, cooking, cleaning, gardening...on top of working full time at the glass company. There, as I understand it, she was the glue that held together the myriad pieces of the operation—billing, payroll, birthdays and weddings...if Glenda knew about it, everyone else did, too, eventually.

How do you replace someone like that?

You don't. You keep such memories close to your heart, tuck them away for use on a cold winter's day when you need the warmth of the relationship you shared with Glenda to remind you that people are still good, the little things always matter, and that your life was a little brighter for the light she shone along the way.
