

Harry Franklin Phillips

September 28, 1927 - June 5, 2018

Harry Franklin Phillips was born September 28, 1927, in Choska, Oklahoma, to Earl and Joanna Alice Wood Phillips. He died Tuesday, June 5, 2018, in Owasso, Oklahoma, at the age of 90 years. Harry was reared and educated in Haskell, Oklahoma, and was a graduate of Haskell High School. He was a veteran of the armed forces and served his country honorably with the United States Air Force. Harry was married to the love of his life Marie on January 21, 1948, in Stonebluff, Oklahoma. He spent most of his working life with Rockwell International in Tulsa retiring as a manager. He was a longtime faithful and charter member of Friendship Baptist Church in Owasso. He enjoyed a variety of pastimes including going fishing. He had coached softball, but enjoyed watching all kinds of sporting events. Those he leaves behind who hold many cherished memories include:

His wife of over 70 years; Marie, of the home

Children; Marilyn Kirkpatrick and husband Rick, of Owasso, Oklahoma

Alan Phillips and wife Bobbie, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma

“ My name is Dick Tyndall. In 1963 Harry was my boss the first 45 minutes i worked For North American Aviation. I held one end of a big beam while Harry check and straighten it and went on working for 28 years before retireing. Harry was my friend all those years and I enjoyed the stories Harry told at our breakfast meeting. Sorry I am un able to attend the services but am recouping from my 4th back surgery.
