“ I worked at Wood Manor nursing home from April 2013 until Dec 2014. I worked purple hall a couple of times and was always fond of Imogene. I always tries to make it over to see her and talk for a few minutes she was always so sweet to me and was always full of Godly advice. I'm sad I wasn't able to say goodbye but am glad she is with her savior and is in pain no longer. I will continue to pray for your family '

“ Absolutely heartbroken I wont be able to come and give my goodbyes to Imogene. I have loved caring for her these last 7 months she is one of a kind I loved spoiling her every morning. Just to see her smile and talk about how much she loved God and her family. She was so proud of all of you I heard about it every morning. Wouldn't trade those mornings for anything. 3:30am just isn't the same at work anymore. Kathy your mom wanted me to meet you awfully bad. Maybe one day we will cross paths. :) Love you Imogene. And I'll keep this boy of ours cooking. You always say he's going to be a chef and I whole heartly believe it. Rip Beautiful.
