“ ‘Connie: I will never forget that smile of his!! Jake was one of "our kids" who spent a lot of time at our house hanging with Brandon and vice versa. I can honestly say that I feel your heartache and pain. As you know, we lost our Brandon a year ago this month 3/26/15).. I know as a mom, the pain you are feeling is unbearable and unimaginable. But God is gathering his Army and is taking those we least expect him to take..May God bring you healing and comfort during this most difficult time. You and your family will remain in our prayers.. Stay strong - and if you need someone to talk to I am here for you...Blessings and love. Marsha and Michael Jonjock’ ”

“ ‘Jake, Where do I even begin...We all have those people for periods in our lives who are forever in our memory and you my friend are that. Life brought us together in friendship and I cant even remember how, and life drifted us apart and again I cant remember how... I moved away..but it is those years in between that play in my mind like a movie full of laughter, love, so many irreplaceable memories I would never trade..Your Smile, Your Laugh, Your Heart, The Good, The Bad, and The Ugly..Friends Forever, but I still wonder if I let you down as a friend?? I hope not RIP ’
