“ We all miss you so much & will keep your memory alive forever. Thank you for being there for us when few were & having empathy & patience for the serious health struggles I've endured that effected me in ways most don't or refuse to understand. That trait sets you above most people I've known & I'll forever be grateful for your enduring love as a father & papa. I know we will see you again & until then we will try to make you proud & Matt will be told to carry on the family name with pride knowing who it represents.

“ My late father, John W. Allan Jr, and I first met Jim when he opened the Paxton Lumber yard in NLR. Unknow by me at the time, Jim and I were to cross paths for nearly 40 years with him supplying our company with materials for our company, Arkansas Wood Doors. Our latest relationship was when Jim stopped in to introduce me to Dakota hardwoods and within days we back to doing business together. All of the the lumber suppliers that we have dealt with over the 40 years, all that knew Jim, respected his integrity and knowledge of this industry. I will truly miss him and appreciate his part in making Arkansas Wood Doors successful.

“ Jim and I often joked that in business we were each other's customer, competitor, and vendor throughout our careers. We met for breakfast often, prayed together, but most important we were great friends. The Hardwood business has lost one of the best, I have lost my friend. Prayers for Brad, Vicky, and the beers family.
