

James Aaron Skinner

September 17, 1936 - April 9, 2024

Our beloved husband, father, and grandfather James (Jim) Aaron Skinner, passed peacefully at home surrounded by his loving family on April 9, 2024. Jim was born September 17, 1936, in Guthrie, Oklahoma, to Felix and Ida Skinner. He was the youngest of ten children. Jim worked for over 50 years in the construction industry. He started out using his hands and moved up to the executive ranks of an international construction company. During his career, he oversaw the construction of numerous power plants that continue to provide electricity to many parts of the United States.

Jim is survived by his wife of 56 years, Evelyn; four children, Loren (Eliza) Skinner, Holli (Steve) Woodward, Angelia (David) Dickinson and Jimmy (Holly) Williams; six grandchildren, Joshua (Kendall) Woodward, Auston Woodward, Sydney Skinner, Shelby Skinner, Jared (Danielle) Dickinson, Lindsay (Kevin) Plisco and one great-grandchild, Carter James Dickinson, as well as numerous in-laws, nieces, nephews, and cousins. Jim was preceded in death by his parents and his siblings. (Sisters: Dorothy, Aliene, and Donna; Brothers: TJ, Don, Harold, Leon, Norman, and Felix, Jr.) Jim was close to his mother-in-law, Melba Walker, who also preceded him in death.

We will remember his storytelling, work ethic, toughness, common sense, and love of family. A celebration of life will be held at a future date.
