“ Carole, my heart aches for you as I learned of your daughter's death. I share your loss and grief through losing my own daughter. Cherish her memories, thank God for sharing her life with you. He will give you strength to face each day as you walk through these difficult days. Stay close as a family, love and lean on each other. You have all experienced a great loss. My prayers are with you and yours. Bill, take good care of her. Love you both, Carolyn Spickelmier

“ When we weren't short-sheeting her bed or checking for spiders in the sunken tub, Jami let us know her room was off limits. I think I slept in her bed only one time. And it was cool, just like she was. Sometimes I look back and think she thought Jill and I were goofballs, even though she was 3 years younger. She always had this steady, cool and sense of confidence about her. She was not afraid of the Murphy Bed. Don't get me wrong, she had a wicked sense of humor and had once smoked a cigarette from her toes, just like her Aunt Paula.

Jami was fun and you wanted to be around her. I can almost go right back to the summers of the 70's and see her sprinkled in freckles, in jean cut-offs, a tee-shirt, her red hair natural, long, curly and beautiful.

She was a lover of animals, from the families' Missy, Brutus and Sebastian, to having her own little pack of dogs and a pig... Her smile was contagious and started out small, like a little curl at the corner of her lips and it then spread rapidly across her entire face and ended up one of the biggest and brightest I have ever seen. She was the queen of expressions. Sometimes she would not even speak and just have this expression on her face and you knew exactly what she was thinking.

Jami, I will miss you. Carole, Bill, Jill, Danny, Brack and Kelly and family - I send you my love and my heart.

“ For a time, I would run into Jami around town and once, several years back, at Claremore (CIH). No matter who was around or where we were she would greet me with a big hug and that beautiful smile. I never saw Jami without that beautiful smile that came from deep inside her heart. She was one-of-a-kind. This world has lost one of its most beautiful souls. There are never any words that can comfort. I'm so sorry for your loss.
