“ Dear Aunt Janet, we will miss you. I always enjoyed the times we did get to visit through all those years. I loved when we visited you all on the mainland. Loved riding in the back seat with my brother and cousins and you and uncle Bruce in the front seat, showing us New York.
I was born 11 days after you and uncle Bruce were married and you both were the best God parents. Every year for 66 years Aunt Janet would send a birthday card that would usually arrive on my birthday.
You will be remembered as a beautiful person, full of love. I always loved your style of humor. Me ke aloha pumehana!
