“ I'm so sorry I didn't know of Jean's passing, Jean was one of my favorite people when I was delivering paint supplies, she was always smiling and laughing about something and would keep me smiling the rest of the day! I bought a "smiley face" rubber stamp just to stamp her ticket before I had her sign it! One day I forgot my stamp and she asked..."hey, where's my smiley stamp"?!

I took care of Jean. She was a treat and I thank her family for sharing her life with me. As a care taker she made my day each and every day I seen her smiling face.

“ I remember Jean as a very kind and sweet friend. I usually fed their dogs while they were on 4th of July vacation. She always wanted to pay me but I refused any money. Then she asked what kind of cake I liked. I said I liked spice cake but told her she didn't have to make one. But she did and it was the best I'd ever eaten. Both Jean and Len were both very kind and wonderful people. If you never met them it was your loss.

Sincere Condolences,
