“ Jean was my sister-in-law, my brother, Buddy's wife. I have known her all of my adult life. My husband, Jim and I shared many happy times with Bud and Jean. Mostly just goofing around and having fun. I am the only one of the four of us still living, but I will always cherish those wonderful memories. Rest In Peace, my dear pal.
Love always

“ I could write a book of the great stories of Jean Webb. I was fortunate to be her neighbor and friend for 10 years in Owasso. If you knew her, you knew she was Buddy's woman and proud of it. They had an amazing bond and she loved talking about him. We joked so much about how little things she did late in life would have made him mad! It was all in good fun, though. She loved and was proud of her family. She lit up rooms with her smile and her laugh was contagious. One of my fondest memories is taking her on a "virtual ride" in Google Earth, where she could see that Oregon coast she loved oh so much, and told stories along the way. Laughter and smiles is how I'll remember you, Jean Webb. You're missed and loved.

“ I only knew Jean through her long association with my Sister Betty. They were friends for over 4 decades, traveled extensively until circumstances prevented same, and enjoyed each other's company. My most sincere and heartfelt sympathy to Dee and the Family.

“ I grew up down the street from Jean. All of my blood relatives live back east. With exception to Granny Silfies we rarely saw blood kin. Jean and Buddy are my aunt and uncle. I couldn't have asked for more. Their kids, Danny and DeeDee are my cousins. I still remember Aunt Jean's wit and humor. I remember her telling jokes and helping keep us In line. I still reflect on the smell of Uncle Buddy's pipe, Aunt Jeans flowers and their love and support. My family and I visited Jean less than a year ago. Although frail she shared stories and memories with us. We love you Aunt Jean!!
With all my heart ...

“ I didn't have the opportunity to know Jean very well. Jean was a fellow church member at St Paul's. I took her to church a couple of times. Always loved her smile. I visited her at her home before the pandemic and we had such a nice visit. Rest in peace. Dixie
